- (2) In clause 11A(1), replace “continue” with “continues”.

- (3) In clause 11A(3), replace “, and the maximum number of monthly payments specified in clause 11(2), apply to the programme of study undertaken by the eligible apprentice, and are” with “applies to the programme of study undertaken by the eligible apprentice, and is”.

- (4) In clause 11A, after subclause (3) insert:

(4) In the situation described in subclause (3), and despite the maximum grant prescribed in clause 8(1), if the new employer’s application is granted, payments commence in accordance with clause 10, irrespective of the payments if any made to the former employer.

9 New clause 11C inserted

After clause 11B insert:

11C Transitional provisions from 5 August 2022

- (1) Assistance granted to an applicant under this programme before 5 August 2022 will continue subject to the terms of the programme that apply from 5 August 2022.
- (2) If an application is made but not granted before 5 August 2022, any assistance that is subsequently granted to the applicant before that date is payable at the rate that was specified in clause 8 at the time.
- (3) In the situation described in clause 11(3), payments are payable at the rate that was specified in clause 8 on the date the payment would have been made if the applicant had complied with clause 7(1)(d) when required by MSD.

10 Clause 13 amended (When this programme expires)

In clause 13, replace “4 August 2022” with “31 December 2023”.

Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the instrument, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This instrument, the majority of which comes into effect on 5 August 2022, makes various changes to the programme. The programme has been extended to 31 December 2023 and the subsidy rate has been amended to $500 per month (gst exclusive) for eligible first and second year apprentices (a reduction from the initial rate of $1,000 per month for eligible first-year apprentices). There have also been minor technical amendments to the programme.
