

Inquiry into Christchurch Terrorist Attack Response

Supporting people and communities affected by the March 2019 attacks on Christchurch masjidain

Wellbeing Budget 2023

This initiative delivers on the Government’s commitment to continue implementing the recommendations from the Royal Commission of Inquiry into the Christchurch terrorist attack.

The Government is investing $0.994m for 2023/24 to continue implementing recommendations 25 and 26 from the Royal Commission of Inquiry into the terrorist attack on Christchurch masjidain. Current funding is due to end in June 2023.

- Budget 2023 funding will enable:
  - One further year continuation of the Kaiwhakaoranga Specialist Case Management Service to connect the affected community to a range of supports, for those who need it.
  - The temporary continuation of the Collective Impact Board which will enable the continued development of and completion of a best practice guide and consideration of the outstanding items on its work programme.
  - The extension of the Christchurch Mosque Attack Welfare Programme for one year to provide financial support to eligible people affected by the attacks.
- The Case Management Service will continue to enable access to a range of supports to those in the affected community who need it to support their recovery journey (e.g. financial, immigration, housing, employment, health and social wellbeing).
- The outstanding items on the Board’s work programme addressing macro level issues relating to wraparound services will continue to be considered. Additionally, a best practice guide will continue to be developed to inform wraparound services in responding to future tragedies.
- The Welfare Programme will continue to provide financial support for the specified eligible people affected by the attacks in line with the purpose of the programme.

Costs ($m, operating)	2022/23	2023/24	2024/25	2025/26	2026/27	TOTAL
		0.994				0.994