

OUR GUIDING PRINCIPLES
[To be tested]

Kotahitanga
Working connectively and in partnership

Aroha in Action
We love and empathise with others as human-beings

Tiakitanga
Long-term and broad view of social cohesion that safeguards taonga and resources.

Manaakitanga
We show respect, generosity and care for others

Whanaungatanga
We foster the importance of relationships and connections

VISION
All people, whānau and communities thrive, belong and are respected in Aotearoa New Zealand.

FOUNDATION: TE TIRITI
Te Tiriti is our first social cohesion document. It brings this framework together and connects it to Aotearoa New Zealand.

WAYS TO FOSTER SOCIAL COHESION

Encouraging and facilitating positive interactions between diverse groups

Fostering inclusive social norms that unite us and value diverse contributions

Tackling all forms of discrimination at all levels

Supporting people to participate at all levels and influence change.

Protect our society and environment for future generations

Improve equitable access to the determinants of wellbeing for all

OUTCOMES

People, whānau & communities

The places that we live, work, play & learn

Institutions, systems & all sectors

feel like they belong respect & embrace diversity connected to their communities & others are inclusive, accessible and appropriate for all are healthy, safe and high-quality are actively inclusive and accessible are supportive are able to disagree in a respectful and safe way have equitable wellbeing outcomes have capacity to participate are supportive, welcoming and representative are accountable and transparent are anti-discriminatory are trusted by all