Oral Item: Social Sector Recovery Plan for Building Resilience for Community and/or Iwi Organisations: Extending the Geographical Coverage of the Agreed Funding

Portfolio Social Development and Employment

On 2 August 2023, the Cabinet Social Wellbeing Committee:

- 1 noted that in June 2023, the Cabinet Extreme Weather Recovery Committee approved the Social Sector Recovery Plan (the Plan) and agreed to draw down a first tranche of $20.65 million from the All-of-Government Response - Social Sector Recovery Plan - tagged operating contingency (the tagged contingency) to support the Plan's implementation [EWR-23-MIN-0051];
- 2 noted that actions agreed under the Plan are intended to support regional priorities within the regional recovery plans, which were under development at the time the Plan was agreed;
- 3 noted that $8.5 million of the agreed draw down was to fund support for building resilience for community and/or iwi organisations in Hawkes Bay, Auckland and Tairāwhiti;
- 4 noted that other regions have identified the need for support to build resilience for community and/or iwi organisations in their regional recovery plans;
- 5 agreed to extend the geographical coverage of funding for building resilience for community and/or iwi organisations to any region affected by the North Island extreme weather events.
