A main benefit cancellation is the formal process that ends the entitlement to a main benefit.

Benefit sanctions

The number of sanctions issued during the June 2024 quarter was 10,389, an increase of 3,630 or 53.7 percent from the June 2023 quarter.

A sanction is a reduction in a person's benefit that may occur if they do not fulfil their work obligations. Not everyone who does not fulfil their obligations gets sanctioned; if benefit recipients re-comply or provide additional information, the sanction can be overturned.

During the June 2024 quarter, the main reasons for unfulfilled work obligation sanctions were clients not attending appointments including seminar appointments (6,069 sanctions) and failing to prepare for work (3,360 sanctions).

At the end of June 2024, there were 1,797 graduated sanctions in place, an increase of 807 or 81.5 percent from the June 2023 quarter.

Sanctions can affect benefit recipients in a number of ways, depending on their circumstances and the number of times they have had a sanction over the last 12 months. There are three types of sanctions: graduated (i.e. percentage reduction in benefit amount), suspended, or cancelled.

Supplementary assistance

Between the end of June 2023 and the end of June 2024:

- the number of people receiving Accommodation Supplement increased by 17,376 or 5.0 percent
- the number of people receiving Disability Allowance decreased by 3,318 or 1.5 percent
- the number of people receiving Temporary Additional Support/Special Benefit increased by 7,605 or 8.4 percent.

The Accommodation Supplement assists people on low incomes with their rent, board, or the cost of owning a home.

The Disability Allowance assists people who have on-going costs because of a disability.

Temporary Additional Support helps people to cover essential living costs that cannot be met from their income or other resources.

Hardship assistance

Total hardship assistance

During the June 2024 quarter, there were 540,516 hardship assistance payments, worth $214.1 million.

Compared with the June 2023 quarter, the number of hardship assistance payments was 11.1 percent lower, and the value of hardship payments was 13.8 percent lower.

Figure 11a: Number of hardship payments provided during the quarter for the last six June quarters, by type of assistance.

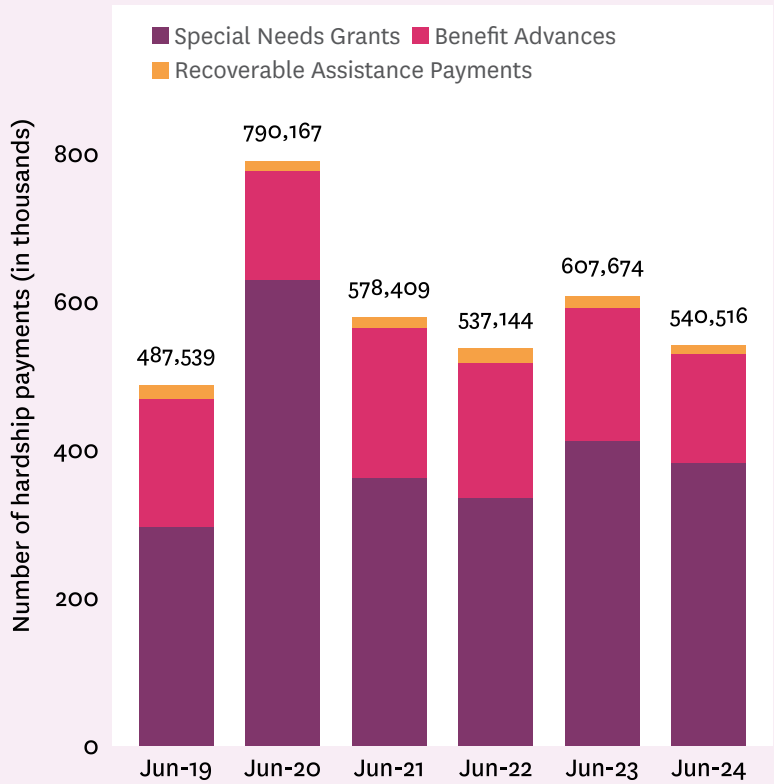

Figure 11b: Value of hardship payments provided during the quarter for the last six June quarters, by type of assistance.

Hardship assistance includes, but is not limited to: Special Needs Grants, Benefit Advances, and Recoverable Assistance Payments. These forms of assistance are designed to help people who have immediate needs.

Reasons for hardship assistance

Two key types of hardship assistance are Special Needs Grants for food and Emergency Housing Special Needs Grants.

There were 291,495 Special Needs Grants for food during the June 2024 quarter, down 20,142 or 6.5 percent from the June 2023 quarter.

The value of these grants was $29.4 million, down 12.1 percent from the June 2023 quarter.

There were 17,589 Emergency Housing Special Needs Grants during the June 2024 quarter, down 8,814 or 33.4 percent from the June 2023 quarter. The value of these grants was $61.6 million, down 29.7 percent from the June 2023 quarter.
